NEW BUSINESS:

- An official vote was taken to move forward with 2020 RH Hometown Christmas.
- An abbreviated version of Hometown Christmas will be held on Saturday, December 12, 2020. Everything will be held in "Old Town" – no school facilities will be used. Carriage rides will be offered, but no bus or trolley this year. There will possibly be Smores at the Main Street Museum grounds, but food items would have to be prepackaged and passed out. The Petting Zoo and Pictures with Santa are planned for the Pleasant Schoolhouse and Christmas cookies would have to be prepacked for the kids. A small daytime parade is a possibility, but discussions continue on this matter. The RH Public Library is still planning to have Storytime with Elves.
- Mum and Pumpkin Sale/Bloom – Historical Society expected to receive $1,500 from sales. Janet Poston & Cheryl Scheer with Bloom will be given lifetime memberships to the RH Historical Society for organizing the fundraiser to help the Historical Society. Mums were picked up in Sedan, KS and the ladies made a trip to Nebraska to pick up the pumpkins for the fundraiser.
- Members of the Berry/Harris family travelled from Chicago, Illinois, and Cindy Bradford showed them some of their family history the museum had on hand.
