NEW BUSINESS:

- The Jack Carr/RH Historical Society Scholarship recipients Lillie Racchini and Scotty Carr were at the July meeting at the Alley Museum Building to receive their $500 checks. Hayden Swope was on a family vacation and unable to attend.
- RH Historical Society will donate $300 for repairs needed to the tent that was used for several years to sell fireworks. The RH Chamber of Commerce, the City of Rose Hill and the Fall Festival Committee also donated to the repairs. Moved by Marion Futhey and seconded by Cindy Bradford.
- Richard Albright will be donating items to the RH Historical Society.
- The bid from All Star Pest Control to spray all three buildings for $305. Museum $135, Pleasant School $125 and Alley Building $45 with spraying every quarter. Moved by Janie Barnard and seconded by Janis Linot.
- MJB in Derby and All Seasons in Rose Hill were contacted to check the A/C unit and give the Society a bid on replacing the unit. All Seasons came to check the unit, but never submitted a bid, and MJB was hired to replace the A/C unit for $3,983.
- For the RH Historical Society's 2025 Budget the $60,000 amount reserved for the general fund was changed to $90,000.
- To remove the paint and power wash the decks at Pleasant School will cost $1,145. Moved by Marion Futhey and seconded by Carolyn Whitesell.
- The Society will pay Lee Media a monthly fee of $500 to maintain the RH Historical Society website. Moved by Marion Futhey and seconded by Diane Linot.
- Wallaceburg Bookbinding will begin a subscription to the RH Reporter and begin binding past years of the Reporter.
- Tree limbs are rubbing on the roof of the Museum and bids will be taken in the fall.
