NEW BUSINESS:

- The RH Fall Festival went well this year. There is an idea to move everything to Shorty Cox next year. Not sure that would be feasible. The Keith Cox Tractor Pull had twenty-nine entries. First place received a $5 gift card from Crumble Cookies, second place received a $2 gift card from Duncan Donuts and third place received $1 coupon from Wendy's.
- Two new veteran's banners were purchased for Paul Heidt and Fisher.
- There are multiple years of the RH Reporter Newspapers that have been sent to be bound for the RH Historical Society.
- Lee Media was paid $7,668.00 for web hosting, email account and website support for one year and received a 10% discount on the
- $305.00 was paid to All Star Pest Control to spray Pleasant Center School, the RH Historical Museum and the Alley building.
- On December 3rd the RH Middle School STUCO will be at the RH Historical Museum to help decorate the building using trains as the theme.
- Hot cocoa and hot dogs will be available outside the RH Historical Museum during the RH Hometown Christmas.
- Kelly Stiles has donated a Christmas tree to be displayed at the Pleasant Center School House.
- December Christmas social will be at the Pleasant Center School House. Bring finger food to share.
